A: The story

Project name:	"See scouts, feel scouts, join scouts"
Responsible organization and person(s):	Scout group Scout group "Lola" Project coordinator Bojan Dimitrijevic Email of project coordinator bokac@lola.org.rs Phone number of project coordinator + 381.65.5.721.217
Introduction to the project:	"See scouts, feel scouts, join scouts" project is aimed at promotion of scouting in the rural areas. Scouting in this moment is in most cases "city based" and we want to try out something new. City children have a lot of possibilities for different types of activities in numerous NGOs that operate in the urban area. In the rural area things are much gloomier and the "offer" is quite poor. In most cases only thing that kids can do is join football clubs or traditional dancing groups. As we have members that originate from the villages around city of Niš we want to provide them with the opportunity to tryout scouting, and as we are one of the poorest municipalities in Serbia, we want to do it for free.
Objectives and goals:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increasing the number of scout members in our unit (enlist 100 new members) • Promoting scouting in rural area schools (promotion held in 8 schools) • Bringing the idea of scouting to the larger public (using our Facebook page and promotion we want to reach at least 1000 children) • Sparking the "Scout spirit" in the rural areas (in two year period after the project to have at least one scout group that is started in rural areas that were involved in the project)
To which extent did we meet objectives and goals:	During the first part of the project we have made promotion in 8 schools . We have managed to reach out to more than 1000 children and youth in Niš metro and rural area. From 28.04. to 02.05.2018. the gathering of scouts and guides took place in Scout Center "Cerje". Group of scouts and guides together with the members of the headquarters of the camp spent five unforgettable days just outside of the outskirts of the city. This activity was organized as a part of the project "see scouts, feel scouts, be scout" which was supported by FOSE Foundation, which enable children, who are not

	scouts, to experience how it feels to be scout and how to spend nights in tents. More than 100 of them spent days that we're filled with activities (playing games and singing) and the participants were given a chance to learn basic scouting skills, and later in the evening they would gather around campfire and spend quality time with their friends. Our youngest members contributed to the overall atmosphere with their presence on a beautiful Saturday afternoon in "Neanderkamp". "Neanderkamp" was named by the period when Neanderthal people used to roam the earth. The camp was visited by the Mayor and also there was a meeting with their Youth office president. I hope that besides growing this will help them in making stronger connections with their local authorizes. MOUs that scout group has signed with the schools in rural areas and they will start developing scouts units in their communities are also quite big accomplishment of this project. It will give us a sustainable factor for a steady growth in rural areas.
What did we learn from the project:	That sometimes doing a free activities can bring a lot of "profit". When we say "profit" we are talking about new members, media coverage and visits from municipality representatives. After implementation of this project our scout unit got a bigger recognition from our local community and bigger support (an issue of a road leading to the scout center vas finally resolved) and for next year we are promised a larger budget from the local municipality. Also, this project gave us insight what kind of promotion approach we need to have towards potential new members and what kind of actives are suitable as a "first time" scout activities.
